NEWS OF CORVALLIS AND VICINITY TOLD IN BRITISH

The Comings and Goings of People
Social Gossip, Personal Mention and Other Items of Public Interest.

Hornet's Nest of Albany was a business visitor in Corvallis Thursday.

George Plaster, formerly with C. M. Vidito, in the barber business, has opened a new shop three doors south of J. H. Harris' store.

A crowd of young people were busy yesterday afternoon decorating the stage for the Rose Eying dramatic readingtonight.

The marriage of Miss Clara Fischer and Ernest P. Rands is to occur Wednesday evening at the Fischer home in this city.

The united age of a couple married at Albany was 33, pretty young, but the bride has gone one or two worse, with 32 for the two.

The topic for the morning sermon at the First Methodist church Sunday is, "The Christian Burden Bearer," and for the evening, "An Ancient Spiritualist's Vision."

A feature of Rose Eying's recital at the Opera house tonight will be vocal solos by Prof. John Fulton, whose magnificent tenor voice has no equal in this part of the world.

The young ladies six stars which made a great hit in several local entertainments last season, are to appear tonight at Rose Eying's recital at the Opera house.

License to wed was issued Tuesday to C. A. Hearing and Miss Grace Rickard, both estimable young people of Benton county. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Rickard.

Claud Starr has sold his interest in the Albany store where he has been in business, and with his family is to return to Corvallis in the near future to reside.

T. W. Dilley, an expert mechanic, who has been in business for the past few years in this city, left for California last Wednesday evening. He intends to move to that state if he can find a suitable location.

Tags for dogs whose owners pay dog tax have been received by Chief Lane. A former lot that arrived was not of the right pattern and had to be returned. Of the new ones, up to yesterday, number one had been taken out and no more.

The following sales have been made by Ambler & Watters: Martin Scheier to A. W. Pugsley, house and 2 lots in Philomath, price $2,000; A. W. Pugsley to Scheier 155 acres, 5 miles southwest of Philomath, price $4,800.

An eleven-year-old child in the family of Ed Kay, living two miles southwest of Monroe, is reported by Dr. Bennett, physician in charge, as ill with smallpox. The case, as is usual with the disease nowadays, is very mild. The house is under quarantine, and a spread of the disease is not anticipated.

One of the best numbers on Rose Eying's programme at the Opera house tonight is her reading from Macbeth. Some of the finest dashes of Shakespeare's immortal work are in the tragedy of Macbeth, and it is the portrayal of some of these parts that Rose Eying has won wide renown in her stage career.

There is to be a basketball game in the Armory tomorrow evening. It will be between the Albany College and O. A. C. Juniors. A spirited contest is expected. The admission is fifteen cents. The play will be preceded by a band concert.

The home of Miss Bertha Davis was the scene of much merriment Thursday afternoon. It was occasioned by a choral shower tendered Miss Clara Fisher, in honor of her approaching marriage. Many an amusing incident of wedding says and bridal trips were unfolded by matrons present. A delicious luncheon was followed by sparkling toasts, each guest receiving a dainty hand painted souvenir, the work of Mrs. Gertrude Strange, a reading by Mrs. Johnson and a vocal number by Mrs. E. F. Pernot added much to the program. Those present were: Mesdames F. A. Helin, B. W. Johnson, C. M. McKeith, J. F. Yates, John Allen, J. A. Harper, Grant Elgin, Richard Kiger, J. F. Fulton, H. S. Pernot, E. F. Pernot, Gertrude Strange, B. F. Irvine, Misses Bertha Davis, Clara Fisher, Eds and Sarah Jacobs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kaupisch spent Thursday with Albany friends.

Mrs. H. R. Fischer and son Fred are expected to arrive home today from a visit of a year months in Chicago.

Nature's Laboratory is the most efficient remedial in Ed's Stiper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root. Dr. Pierce found medicinal properties which when extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure glycerine, have proven most potent in making weak women strong and sick women well. It contains no alcohol; it is not a "patent medicine," nor a "cure-all." It is a "remedy" which supplants the ignorant and vicious methods of treatment, with alcoholic stimulants, then in vogue, and still too commonly prescribed and advised for weak, feeble ailments.
